Criterion three

High-level English language skills are essential to the practice of social work in Australia. All applicants applying to have their qualification assessed must provide evidence with their application that they have proficient English language skills to work as a social worker in an English language environment.

How to evidence this:

Submit evidence of one of the following:

OPTION 1: A minimum overall score of 7.0 achieved in one sitting of the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) Academic test;

For example:

- IELTS Academic Test: Writing 7.5, Reading 7.0, Speaking 7.5, Listening 7.0

or

OPTION 2: A minimum score of 7.0 in each of the four components (listening, reading, writing and speaking), achieved in in a maximum of two sittings in a six (6) month period; and no component score is below 6.5;

For example:

- Test 1: Writing 6.5, Reading 7.0, Speaking 6.5, Listening 7.0

or

OPTION 3: One test sitting of the IELTS Academic Test with a minimum score of 7.0 in three of the four components of the test AND the inclusion of one IELTS Academic One Skill Retake test.

Where the component score did not achieve the minimum score of 7.0 it must not be below 6.5. The IELTS Academic One Skill Retake test must achieve a minimum score of 7.0 in the retaken component.

Eligibility for IELTS One Skill Retake occurs when applicants have completed a full IELTS on computer test at an eligible test centre, and they have received their IELTS test score. The IELTS One Skill Retake must be taken within 60 days of the original test date.

For example:

- One Skill Retake: Writing 7.0

Test results must be obtained within three (3) years prior to submitting an AASW qualification assessment.

Where Option 3 applies, applicants must have obtained their IELTS Academic One Skill Retake test within 12 months of the date of their AASW Migration Eligibility and Assessment (MEA) application.

These requirements may be waived where applicants have met the educational requirements for English language proficiency. See Exemptions below.
