Mark Wilder

NSW Branch Election 2026

Mark works in private practice primarily as an EAP clinician. He is the current AASW NSW Branch President and is also a member of the ACRRM CRG. Mark is passionate about rural and remote healthcare and is working on the establishment of a rural and remote practice group for social workers. He also provides a variety of consultation services to private organisations around co-designing with consumers and on clinical matters. Mark is also active on social media and welcomes engagement in that space.
