Title: Help shape sector change: The role of digital interventions in face-to-face mental health care

Key dates	Open now
Participants sought	Mental health clinicians and allied health professionals
About	Orygen is inviting mental health clinicians and allied health professionals to share their perspectives in a short survey, to help us understand how digital tools are being – and can be – integrated into mental health care.
What is involved	We'd like to hear your thoughts in an anonymous 10-minute survey. By taking part, you'll enter the draw for a chance to win 1 of 5 $100 vouchers.
How to get involved	Share your thoughts here: https://q.surveys.unimelb.edu.au/jfe/form/SV_8AZsKJxHvutjnPE
Institution and investigator contact	For questions, contact: Dr Shaminka Mangelsdorf, Centre for Youth Mental Health, University of Melbourne Telephone: 03 9966 9175 Email shaminka.mangelsdorf@unimelb.edu.au
